The Floorshell® product is appears to fall within the scope of the claims of U.S. Patent No. 9,365,385. (Copy enclosed). Garland assumes that Trimaco is a reputable company which respects the intellectual property rights of others and is unaware of Garland's U.S. Patent No. 9,365,385. Therefore, Garland requests that Trimaco take the necessary actions to terminate the sale of Floorshell® product to avoid further infringement of Garland's patent rights.

Written assurance within the next fourteen (14) days is requested from Trimaco that Trimaco will agree to immediately terminate further sales of the above Floorshell® product or any similar product.

Very truly yours,
